

Name _____

- A possessive pronoun takes the place of a possessive noun.
- A possessive pronoun shows who or what owns something.
- My, your, his, her, and its are singular possessive pronouns.

My brother is a firefighter.

His job is very hard.

Your answer was correct.

The box was on its side.

Circle the correct possessive pronoun in () for each sentence.
Write the possessive pronoun on the line.

1. One of (my, me) favorite people in history is George Washington.

2. George Washington was a hero in (his, he) time.

3. (He, His) home was a large farm. _____

4. Mount Vernon was the name of (his, he) farm. _____

5. The farm was known for (its, he) fine home. _____

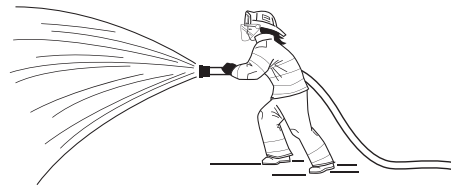

6. Martha Washington also helped (her, she) country.

Name _____

- A possessive pronoun shows who or what owns something.
- Some possessive pronouns are your, our, and their.

Our brother is a police officer.Your sister is a firefighter.The teachers eat their lunch at noon.

Underline the correct possessive pronouns. Write the sentences correctly on the lines.

1. (Your, You) favorite hero is someone in your family.

2. (She, Her) job is very hard.

3. She works in (our, us) town's fire station.

4. She helps keep (their, them) equipment working.

5. She makes (our, we) town a safer place.
